

1st Annual Conference

Parents Matter!

Cupertino, April 16, 2016 1:00-4:30 pm

A fundraising event for families of Teach SOCIAL Silicon Valley

Join us for the first annual Teach SOCIAL Silicon Valley (TSSV) Conference, Parents Matter, for an afternoon of educational workshops with Michelle Garcia Winner - the founder of Social Thinking®! Explore cutting edge strategies for social cognition to use with your child immediately at home, in school, and in the community. At the conference only - get a special discount on a wide array of Social Thinking books and continue your learning at home!

All proceeds from donations will go toward scholarships for individuals who would otherwise be unable to afford social cognitive therapy.

Seats are limited - Register before it fills up!

www.TeachSocialSV.com

When: April 16, 2016, 1:00 – 4:30 pm

Where: Quinlan Community Center, Cupertino Room: 10185 N. Stelling Road, Cupertino, CA 95014

Cost: $75 per person suggested donation. All parents are welcome regardless of ability to pay.

Please check to see if your employer has a program to match donations!

Agenda and Details: This event is for parents only. Childcare will not be provided.

1:00-1:30PM: Registration / Check In

1:30-3:30PM: Parent Education Presentation by Michelle Garcia Winner, founder of Social Thinking

3:30-4:30PM: Q&A + Make and Take activities with Social Thinking therapists and staff

Michelle Garcia Winner is the founder of Social Thinking and specializes in the treatment of individuals with social cognitive learning challenges. She is a senior therapist at the Social Thinking Center in Santa Clara, California, as well as a prolific writer and international speaker. Michelle helps educators, mental health professionals, and parents around the world appreciate how social thinking and social skills are integral to a person's success - be it in school, in relationships, in the community, or in his/her career.

Teach SOCIAL (TSSV) is a 501©(3) human services agency dedicated to providing resources for clinical and educational services, based on the conceptual model and practices of Social Thinking, for individuals with social cognitive challenges and their families in Silicon Valley, California. Tax ID #26-1199646